

Summary

This session would lend you information on the Glass Pavilion by Bruno Taut with sketches, showing the exemplified use and display of the properties of glass. The session would also explain cubist architecture with examples.

You will further understand the key proponents of Cubist architecture, and how they originate. You will also understand constructivist architecture with suitable examples.