

Summary

This session would lend you information on post war architectural development of Europe. Also we would be able to learn about Alvar Aalto and contemporary Finnish architecture. Economic boom after the war and how it helped architecture grow was important. We would also be studying the international style., The modern architecture for the modern man.