

Summary

This session would lend you information on the works of Louis I Kahn with sketches. We shall understand the use of light and play of light employed in it. We shall understand then, the works of Paul Rudolph and explain how he seamlessly solves complex planning problems. Then we shall study the projects of Eero Saarinen's and the style of Structural Expressionism.