

Glossary

Colonies: a country or area under the full or partial political control of another (imperial) country and occupied by settlers from that country..

Cantonments: military garrison or camp.a permanent military station in British India.

Stylistic:of or concerning style, especially literary style.