

Summary

This session would lend you an insight on the happenings taking place parallelly in India at the same time period.

We will have a look at Colonialization in India, its impact and influence in architecture and the different building typologies that emerged. This we will do by understanding the culture and practices ongoing in British India with its whole background check.

We will also have a look at the hybrid styles that emerged in India like the Indo Saracenic style.