

Summary

This session would lend you an overall insight on what Neo-classicism is and what are the types in it. This would also help to understand the different architects who were responsible for the modern day Neo-classicism and also other buildings.

This would give a brief idea on how architecture was seen and practiced in different time periods and in different countries.