

Summary

This session would lend you an overall insight on the bridges that were built during the 19th century and the evolution of the bridges with new materials being discovered. This also helps to know about the style followed in the 19th century.