

Summary

This lecture covers the different types of light sources and the way they are mounted. Also the luminaries classification based on many categories have been explained. The Lumen method for lighting design has been detailed step by step.