

Summary

This lecture covers the different types of outdoor light sources and the parameters considered for effective lighting design. Lighting design guidelines various building types have been explained. Solar energy for lighting and energy efficient lighting for buildings are discussed.