

Assignment

1. Define development control and state its uses.
2. What are the various aspects of development control?
3. Why do we need to consider land use in development control?
4. List the physical characteristics of the development site and surrounding land.
5. How does land use policy is being used to overlook at development of a master plan?