

Objectives

By reading this section one can understand the basics of what art is from definition – provoking students to think of their own definition of art, to understand the need for art, role of art, art reality, perception, representation.

An introduction to various media and techniques practiced in art would be understood

An understanding of what art appreciation is, with respect to form, context and content.