

Summary

This session would lend you the basic understanding of the situation in Europe after the world war and how Architecture helped the cities to revive again. This session would also lend you the information on some of public spaces designed by Aldo Van Eyck.