

Summary

This session would lend you information of the life and works of great postmodern architects such as Robert Venturi and Micheal Graves and also helps in understanding the complexity and contradiction in the postmodern architecture through the works of Robert Venturi. This will also help in understanding the extremely famous landmarks created by Michael Graves.