

Summary

This lecture is about the other refrigeration cycles where refrigerant is replaced with air, chilled air, water or chilled water. The purpose and working principle of other components in air conditioning system like air handling units, cooling towers and electric motors are explained briefly.