

Summary

This session will define a global city and will trace the origin of cities. It will delve into the impacts of global economy and trade on cities across the world.