

Assignment

1. Explain how relevant it is to study about material in Interior Design?
2. What are the three components in evaluating the usage of materials in interiors?
3. What are the different types of glass used in interiors and their properties?
4. List the different types of metals and their application in interior spaces