

SUMMARY

In this session we learn about the different materials and elements used in designing a space. This session will also cover the advantages and limitations of using these materials.