

FAQ's

1. What are the different physical components in interiors?

The Physical Components of design are basically everything that composes the interiors. From the wall to the ceiling – every detail that comprises of your Interior is a key component to your design concept.

2. What is the window treatment preferred in office interiors?

Solar screen window treatments are preferred in office interiors because they cut glare on computer and media screens, increasing productivity and quality of image, design and clerical work without cutting off the view through the window.

3. What are the different types of doors and windows?

INTERIOR DOORS

- Double Door
- Swinging Door
- Sliding Door
- French Door
- Louvered Door
- Revolving Door
- Bi-fold

WINDOW TYPES

- Fixed
- Double hung
- Casement
- Awning / Projected
- Jalousie
- Sliding
- Horizontal point
- Vertical point
- Hopper

4. What are the different ceiling types?

- Plaster
- Wood
- Acoustical ceiling material
- Ceiling systems
- Metal ceiling
- Glass ceiling
- Plastics

5. What are the different flooring types preferred in interiors?

- Concrete
- Masonry
- Terrazzo
- Wood
- Tile
- Paint floor covering
- Resilient flooring
- Carpet finish