

Glossary

Monolithic Architecture

Monolithic architecture covers buildings carved, cast or excavated from a single piece of material, in historic forms rock.

Trabeated Architecture

In architecture, a post-and-lintel or Trabeated system refers to the use of horizontal beams or lintels which are borne up by columns or posts.