

Glossary

Frits:

A fused or partially fused material used as a basis for glazes or enamels.

Louvre:

Each of a set of angled slats fixed or hung at regular intervals in a door, shutter, or screen to allow air or light to pass through.