

Objectives

- To understand the contemporary structural expressions in buildings.
- To understand the function – form expression language and structural exemplification.
- To understand the works of Norman Foster as a master architect.