

Summary

This session allows you to get an insight onto one of the most famous and capable architects of our time, Sir Norman Foster. His B3 Offices, Stockley Park and Sainsbury center for visual art gives a clear demonstration of the skills that he employed as an architect and as a person who is keenly interested in the structure of his buildings.

Also you will understand how green some of the world's best structural marvels can be.