

SUMMARY

In this session we learn about the Fleetguard building and the PAT center by Richard Rogers was another building designed on the hi-tech architecture style where the structure and MEP aspects of the buildings are exposed and celebrated while Calatrava's Olympic stadium at Athens was structural expressionism at its peak.

These 2 case studies are very relevant and can be used to understand a lot of design aspects and strategies.