

Glossary

Aesthetic – concerned with beauty or appreciation of beauty.

Anthropological – study with respect to various aspects of human factor.

Mesological – study with respect to relationship between living and its surrounding environment.

Ethnographic approach – study approach with respect to point of view of the people involved.

Responsive – study approach with respect to the structure and its appreciation.

Utilitarian – study with respect to the immediate and basic utility of the architecture.

Pigeon houses – are structures intended to house pigeon or doves and are a good example of vernacular architecture in Egypt.