

Assignment

1. Literature studies of settlements of vernacular nature in one's own region.
2. Application of principles of design and vernacular architecture to better understand the above.
3. Social hierarchy as vernacular architecture evolved.
4. Studying scales of vernacular aspects from single dwelling unit to group of houses to level of a settlement.