

Objectives

- Understanding the geography and heritage of Kashmir
- Understanding the role of geography, physical conditions, climate and availability of resources – in Vernacular architecture
- Study of the types of ingenious construction techniques evolved by trial and error
- Analysis of the use of local materials to their efficiency
- The study of Dhungas or house boats, which are unique method of shelter
- The variety in vernacular architecture based on regional topography