

Objectives

- A glimpse of Kerala – a diverse state of India and the factors that influence its vernacular architecture
- Studying the traditional values of Kerala's architecture and how it has been valued by generations
- Analysis of the different types of houses and their vernacular nature
- Study of the features of the mansions of Kerala mainly of the Nayers and the Namboothiris
- Understanding the spatial planning and principles of vernacular architecture of the Nalukettu