

Summary

In this lecture, we saw the basics of Urban Planning and design from the seismic perspective. The lecture covered the Vulnerability of Existing buildings and discussed on how to tackle the same. The lecture discusses about the Repair, restoration and strengthening process of the existing buildings and the various methods to do the same. The lecture also discusses about the various repair materials of the buildings.