

Summary

This lecture covers different types of earthen constructions like hand moulded layered construction, adobe or block construction, tapial or pisé construction and earthen construction with wood or cane structure. This lecture discusses in detail about the seismic design of RC buildings. The lecture covers in detail on the structure of an RC building, How an RC building reacts to earthquake and what are the strength hierarchies of RC structure.