

Summary

This session would try to explain different patterns of settlements. It will further delve into the different reasons for development. It will also help us understand the factors influencing the growth and decay of human settlements.