Objectives

1. To understand what is a project planning and scheduling.

2. What are the traditional project management techniques used and their significance is to be understood.