

Objectives

1. To understand work break down structure of any given project and each activity interdependencies.
2. To estimate the project duration and find out the critical path with individual activity float.