

SUMMARY

This presentation explains about the steps by which the worked out schedule is to be updated and its importance. Also we will see about the resource management techniques such as resource allocation, resource leveling and resource smoothing.