

SUMMARY

This episode deals with the definitions, objectives and fundamentals of Construction Planning & Management. It also explains about constructional resources, construction participants, estimating and productivity.