

Objectives

- To understand the concept of sustainability, along with the importance of Thermal comfort and factors affecting it.
- To cover different available knowledge to test sustainability.
- To teach its importance not only in a residential level but globally.