

Objectives

The aim of this lecture is to make students understand the basis of environment and its connections - the video extends to cover the introduction and details about different scales of eco-system, food chain, carbon cycle and energy transfer.