

Objectives

To understand the concept of green building more clearly the topic expands discussing about green building, importance, why is it essential to chose green building instead of conventional method and threads on the climate change due to increased effects of globalisation and urbanization. To reduce this effect and to keep a check on energy uses, LEED - Leadership in energy and environmental design has been developed which is covered with its point criteria and case example.