

SUMMARY

This session would provide you information on basics of conservation. It will help you understand the term heritage, and the different types of heritage. It illustrates the differences between terms like conservation, preservation and adaptive reuse. It touches upon a basic discussion on the need for conservation.