

SUMMARY

This session would delve into the specifics of conservation in India. It will help you understand the term museum conservation, and how different it is from monument conservation. It illustrates role of agencies like ASI and INTACH and their contribution towards conservation. It explains the role of policies and legislations and how they affect the quality of conservation in our country.