

GLOSSARY

Cultural Property:

Objects, collections, specimens, structures, or sites identified as having artistic, historic, scientific, religious, or social significance.

Documentation:

The recording in a permanent format of information derived from conservation activities.

Reversibility:

Ability to be removed completely without affecting the surrounding original materials.

Veneer:

A thinly cut surface or plane of wood that serves as the skin of a piece of furniture.