

SUMMARY

This session would delve into the specifics of the practical difficulties and challenges of conservation. It will help you understand the need for listing of monuments, and how important it is to document buildings. It illustrates the importance of assessing the architectural character of the historic property. It explains the role of a historic structure report and the method on how to write one effectively. It further goes on to discuss the guidelines to be followed while preserving or rehabilitating a historic building