

SUMMARY

This session discusses the details of seismic retrofitting and accessibility of a historic site- need and principles. The importance of heritage site management is detailed out with the relevant steps to be followed. The case study detailed out is the Chettinad Palace in Kanadikathan.