

Objectives

- To understand the opportunities and difficulties in managing a housing project.
- To know about different strategies in site development.
- To know about the analysis and studies done before the commencement of a project.
- To know about target population, user needs and preferences.
- To understand various tasks and stages involved in a project development.