

Objectives

- To understand the process involved in housing management.
- To know about different strategies that has been developed to tackle housing development.
- To know about community participation and stages involved in it.
- To understand different technology that support construction of mass housing.
- To understand various techniques of construction that are cost effective and appropriate.