

Objectives

- To understand the urban housing scenario in India.
- To understand housing policies over the years and its impact in the growth of economy.
- To understand five year plans and National housing policies.
- To understand the different housing sectors involved in housing provision in India.
- To understand the difference between public, private and social housing.
- To Study in detail the role of HUDCO in housing.