

Summary

This session would lend you information on different housing policies namely the National housing policies and Five year plans, and its impact on housing provision in the country. Additionally we would also look in to a much greater depth on public sector and private sector housing. It would provide you key information statistics on housing deficit calculator and data related to urbanization an slum formation. We would conclude the session by looking in to the aspects of indulgence of HUDCO – as an institution playing a key role in the provision of housing in India.