

Objectives

- To understand different planning standards in the country.
- To define spatial standards set for housing design.
- To understand minimum spatial standards for housing.
- To understand land use classification and rules set on different parameters for housing design.
- To learn the institutional mechanisms tied up with Housing standards and UDPFI.
- To understand the criteria in which urban planning guidelines are set out.
- To know the basics of minimum requirements in a city on recreational, commercial, infrastructural and transportation facilities.