

Summary

This session would lend you information on different factors that contribute to the building bye law amendments in a city. It explains few parameters including land use control, subdivision control, height, plot coverage, FSI, parking, zoning till advertisement control. Diagrammatically these parameters are explored and are explained uses some cases. Then the objectives of bye laws are unveiled and end with the methodology of formulating standards for social, health and recreational facilities.