

Objectives

- To understand the layout factors needed for housing.
- To understand block, clusters and boundary.
- To know about the utility network that support housing community.
- To understand how To optimize utility network efficiently.
- To understand various forms of sewage disposal systems, electricity and water supply systems.
- To know about the common or ancillary facilities that could support a housing community.