

Objectives

- To understand the different Case studies in housing.
- To know about architectural strategies involved in low income housing complexes.
- To know about the utilitarian and planning aspects that support housing community.
- To understand concepts related To housing as whole linked with social, cultural and economical aspects.
- To understand various forms of climatic factors tackled in housing projects.
- To know about the spatial characteristics of different housing forms as a case study and its response to environment, economy and the city.